3. Horse should load easily in two-horse or stock trailer for travel to appearances.
4. The horsemanship portion of the competition will consist of a designated pattern and flag run. (see attached copy).
5. Caution is emphasized during the tryouts. The horse must be kept under control at all times. A slower, steady pace is preferred over a faster pace which might cause an accident.

JUDGING REQUIREMENTS

1. The applicant is not required to wear a full dress suit for the tryouts since the Committee will be outfitting the Queen after she is chosen. Any neat, clean coordinated outfit will be acceptable whether it be dress pants, new jeans, a long sleeved shirt, boots and a hat.
2. Each applicant will be required to give an autobiographical speech before the Selection Committee and audience, as well as answer questions from the Committee prior to the horsemanship competition. Example of speech - Please tell us about yourself and your experience with the Sisters Rodeo in approx. two and one half minutes.
3. The Judging will be done by a Selected Committee. Guidelines are: 25 points for personality/interview, 25 points for appearance, and 50 points for horsemanship.

4. Application closing deadline will be (TBA). Tryouts will be held (TBA) at 1pm for the general public at the Sisters Rodeo arena. Applicants must arrive by 11am.
5. One (1) girl will be selected to reign during the coming year. Her title will be the Sisters PRCA Rodeo Queen for 2021.
6. The selected girl can be removed from the Queen position for any conduct or action not deemed suitable of a representative by the Sisters Rodeo Association Board and will be replaced with the 1st Runner up.

QUEEN RULES

1. The selected young lady is responsible for her own transportation and that of her horse to a designated meeting place prior to all appearances unless stated by a member of the Court Committee.
2. There will be no drinking, smoking or chewing of tobacco or foul language used by a representative at any time while they are representing the Sisters Rodeo.
3. The rules and decisions of the Court Adviser will be followed by the selected Queen. If a girl does not cooperate, the Advisor may recommend to the Board of Directors that the girl be removed from the position of Queen.
